The librarys would be much better
if we could only VOTE OUT every one of the miserable, corrupt selfish TRUSTEES
& COMMISSIONERS. Had a nice day.

Comment from a Grandmother

A G-ma came up to me to check out books and shared the following,

"You know, I can't believe it. We went swimming for most of the day, and I suggested to my two granddaughters, 'I'm tired, let's go home and watch a movie to relax.' They quickly replied, 'You know, Grandma, we'd rather go to the library.' I was overjoyed! They're back there, sitting together, taking turns reading books." -Lisa Powell

To All Staff <allstaff@flatheadcountylibrary.org>

"Thank you so much! Our cabin is unavailable right now. My son is tired, he's autistic, and a bit overstimulated. He wanted to go and sleep, but we can't get in yet for another hour or so. Having a calm space like this is exactly what he needed. Libraries don't need to be big and fancy. They are just as valuable when they're small. So thank you for being an open space to hang out at while we wait".

Yay, to our childrens department people for knowing what makes littles happy! ❤️ The boy has been at our light table for the last half hour.

Dear Sally,

Thank you for taking the time to complete a comment card for the library. We truly value feedback from our patrons.

I'm delighted to hear that you had such a positive experience with us, and I'm especially glad that Jennifer, our Library Advisor, was able to assist you so well!

Regards,
Teri
