

The library encourages young readers to become lifelong learners with research-backed literacy programming that empowers parents and caregivers as a child's first and most important teacher. People attended these educational events 14,683 times at the library this year.

Services

The library enriches lives by fostering literacy and creating opportunities.

530

Early Literacy programs

64,944

Computer sessions

40,823

Wi-Fi sessions

9,880

Reference questions

Library Hours

Kalispell

Mon-Fri
10am-6pm

Sat 10am-
5pm

Columbia Falls

Mon-Fri
10am-6pm

Sat 10am-
2pm

Bigfork

Mon-Fri
10am-6pm

Sat 10am-
2pm

Flathead County Library Annual Report 2025

Finances

$2,058,320 total Operating Revenue:

$1,941,159 Local Tax Revenue

$48,041 State Aid

$69,120 Gifts and Donations

$2,616,559 Total operating expenditures:

$1,881,736 Staffing

$240,000 Collections and Databases

$494,823 Technology & other expenses

Investment in the library provides invaluable access to knowledge, education, and community resources that help Montanans thrive. The library's revenue is $21.31 per capita.

The library's collection includes 79,062 books. With a library card, patrons can access these and many other resources for personal enrichment and educational pursuits.

Library Collection

Your library card grants you access to a physical collection with 91,141 items:

79,062 Physical Books

7,819 DVDs

2,943 Audio Books

Our Community Says...

"Best library ever! Friendliest staff and amazing resources."

—Flathead County Library Patron

Users and Visits

- 40,461 residents have a library card out of a community of 96,606 people.
- People visited the library 222,377 times this year. That's an average of 34 people every hour we are open.
- Patrons virtually visited the library Online to make 164,630 electronic checkouts.

Circulation

- Residents borrowed 540,421 books and media through the library, including 212,068 children's books.
- Using the average valuation of $9 per book, borrowing from the library saved residents around $4,863,789.