

Language Consideration for Patron Conduct Policy:

For safety and risk-management reasons, the use and charging of rechargeable batteries within library facilities is restricted to batteries designed for standard handheld electronics or laptop computers. Larger-capacity batteries, including those intended for industrial, recreational, or mobility equipment, are not permitted due to their increased potential for overheating, fire, or electrical hazards.